Discussion regarding Performance and Salary Revision

Dear Mr. Patel,
As I approach my two-year anniversary with the company here in Vadodara, I have been reflecting on my contributions to the team. Over the past year, I have successfully led the "Surat Textile Project," which resulted in a 15% increase in regional client retention.

Additionally, I have taken on the responsibility of mentoring three junior associates.

Given these achievements and my increased scope of work, I would like to request a meeting to discuss a revision of my current salary to align with my performance and industry standards. I am available for a brief meeting on Thursday or Friday afternoon. Thank you for your continued support.

Best regards,
Darshil Patel

Sincere Apology regarding the delayed Quarterly Report

Please accept my formal apology for the delay in submitting the Q3 Sales Report, which was due yesterday. Due to an unforeseen technical glitch in our data server at the Satellite Office, I was unable to compile the final figures on time.

I understand that this delay has impacted the team's scheduling. I have now uploaded the completed report to the shared drive and have verified all the data.

I am taking steps to ensure that such an incident does not happen again. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Sincerely,

Darshil Patel
